

Counterbalances

In gymnastics, a counterbalance is when two people work together to stay balanced by pushing or pulling against each other. Each person uses their body weight to help steady their partner so neither falls. You often see counterbalances in partner or group routines, where teamwork, communication and trust are essential.