

Partner balances

A partner balance usually involves two gymnasts working together, where one acts as the base, providing support and stability, and bears the weight of the other partner, known as the flyer.

Partner balances

